

Locking your Desktop

When you are away from your computer or gone for the evening, lock your desktop rather than logging off.

If you log off the network, the virus scans and other updates cannot run.

To lock your desktop

Press control / alt / delete

On the task manager screen, select Lock Computer

To unlock

Press control / alt / delete

And enter your password